THE VIEW

FROM TEXAS CREEK

THIS IS COLLEGE

I am a stander-in-line; signer of last name, first name,
middle initial; wearer of dink;
receiver of chair, desk, bed, and dream—a freshman.

Being a freshman is a little frightening;
being a freshman is lots of fun . . .
best of all, it's exciting,
it's unique—it's beginning.

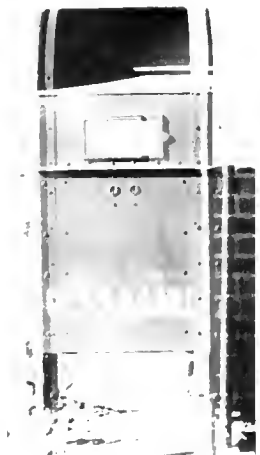

Why of all books, must textbooks be so ugly?

Books should be beautiful . . .

The act of learning should be beautiful, and maybe it is,
but studying is not.

College is

coffee between classes,
touchdown passes, cram exams,
studies, buddies, skirling pipes, campus gripes,
things to do, a point of view . . .

. . . hard work,
homework,
slow work,
no work . . .

Listening, talking,
thinking, walking,
seeing, being . . .
this is college, this and more—
college, perhaps, is many doors.

It's a dog barking at three a.m. It's an empty coffee cup and a full ash tray.

It's procrastination followed by despair.

Studying is a bent back and hunched shoulders, and sore eyes.

It's loneliness. It's humility,
it's arrogance, it's patience,
it's push.

It's the grind.

And sometimes—
just sometimes—
Studying is something near joy,
when the isolated bits suddenly coalesce
the filings fly to the magnet—
when a pattern, an analogy appears,
and understanding occurs.

I am amorphous. I am nerve ends, ganglia, squeezed, compressed.

I must stiffen, toughen, yet stay flexible.

I want to be steel, I am afraid of becoming stone.

I drift into limbo,
sucking in fact, while I long for truth.

As I turn over and over I seem to be shrinking—or am I coiling for a leap?
I am supposed to be a microcosm; I am merely chaos, in little, and I am not made cunningly. Yesterday I caved in a little; today I think I will burst,
I will surely die tonight.

And to where:

Was it in that week before Commencement,
or while I sat in the hot white sun,
a prickle of sweat
under the black bachelor's gown,
or in those few empty days at home?

Anyway,
All at once I knew a little bit about why.
I was out from under the suffocating mass of knowledge;
there was a direction to go,
a way to do it, and I knew the way.

I did know, had learned.

There was the door, the handle to turn, the latch to lift—and all those years I had been finding, acquiring, filling my pockets with keys.

Already the doors are opening. Through how many shall I finally pass?

'Right Arms' Lead New Order

FATHER OSCAR AND "RIGHT ARMS"

Along with many changes in the physical plant and administration, the Abbey students found a revolutionary new code of rules upon their September return. The new rules, as set forth in the Student Handbook, are a milestone in Abbey progress. Student self-government is now a reality.

The most important of these changes is the use of student proctors in the dormitories. Although there is a priest in residence at each of the dormitories, the proctors have full control and authority. The young prefects are selected by the Dean of Students from among the campus leaders. In initiating the students to the system of student proctors, Fr. Oscar stressed the fact that they are his direct representatives, and as such they possess his authority. With regards to attire, neat-campus. The restrictions have been lessened, in that coats and ties are no longer required for all classes and meals. They are required for the evening meal in Maurus Hall however.

Freshmen and sophomores are now limited to double the number of semester hours in cuts. Although they have no nightly study period, they are limited to one night away from campus during the week. Their hours are 11:00 p.m. on weekdays and 12:30 a.m. on weekends.

The number of cuts for juniors and seniors is three times the number of semester hours, and evening permission for juniors and seniors is 1:00 A.M. of the following morning. This permission is applicable to every evening.

This new and unprecedented liberality in rules and the inauguration

Administrative Officers Named

The Rt. Rev. Walter A. Coggin, O.S.B., the new President of Belmont Abbey College, announced earlier this year that two new appointments have been made to fill high administrative positions at the college. The new officials are Walter L. Spear, Academic Dean and the Rev. Dominic J. Pecoraino, O.S.B., Director of Admissions.

The new Academic Dean, Mr. Spear, has both taught business administration, and directed practice teaching here at the Abbey. In addition to his new duties, he will continue to teach in the new department of business and eco-

Frosh Elect New Officers

With the completion of class elections, the class of '68 is now officially recognized as a functioning part of Belmont Abbey College. After a week of active campaigning, the election was held on Tuesday, October 5.

Pat Blevins, a history major from Chesapeake, Virginia, has been elected president. The freshman class promises to be active this year, as Pat has already discussed plans for a class dance at the end of this month. He is also directing plans for the freshmen's part in the Fall Promise Weekend.

Another Virginian, Ronnie Beck-stoffer of Richmond, has been elected vice-president. A liberal arts major, he is an active participant in Abbey sports, being a member of the soccer team.

Elected to the office of secretary was Doug DiRuggiero. Doug, who hails from Summit, New Jersey, is majoring in accounting.

The Old Dominion contributed still another officer in Terry McCook, the new treasurer. Terry is a sociology major from Richmond.

For boarding representative there was a tie between Frank Diehl and John Murphy. A runoff election gave the victory to Diehl, an arts major from Havertown, Penn.

The new day-hop representative is Charles Stewart. A native of Gastonia, he is majoring in history.

The freshman class seems to be off to a good start. A class meeting will be held in the near future to formulate plans for the coming year.

Abbey Expansion Plan Moves Ahead

When the Abbey students returned to campus last month, they saw that many radical changes had been made since June.

The major shock was the Abbey Cathedral. The beautiful, traditional Gothic interior which was intact when they left is now an empty shell. A huge hole has been excavated inside, where a crypt, or basement, is being built.

The cathedral is also going to get a new baptismal font. Upon the completion of renovation this new font will be placed in the narthex, or entranceway, as the senior class' contribution to the New Abbey. The old slave stone embedded in the parking lot behind the monastery will be the new font.

The huge stone will be raised and then will be sandblasted. A basin will then be hewn out of the top of the stone. The raising of the stone, which has a heritage older than the Abbey itself, is under the direction of Ernie Miller, senior class president.

Another change was found in the administrative hub, where a complete renovation and modernization of the administrative offices has been carried out. Despite the modern decor, wall to wall carpeting, lush furniture and piped-in music, officials of the college claim that the main purpose of the rebuilding is greater efficiency, due to more space and more comfortable working conditions.

Congratulations

to our latest Ph.D.

Dr. George Herndl

Beanie Parade Climaxes Freshman Orientation

With over two hundred freshmen and new students anticipated at BAC in September, the need of an orientation program of some sort was clearly evident. This need was met successfully by the Student Government and the sophomore class.

The Freshman Orientation Program began on Monday, Sept. 7, with the President's annual lawn picnic on the library lawn.

Here the freshmen and their parents had the chance of meeting some of the faculty and administration.

After all had registered and moved in, a series of conferences was held to familiarize the new students with the Abbey campus and its traditions. The freshmen met with their proctors and received information on dormitory living.

THE SPIRIT OF '68

The social aspect of student life was not neglected. On the first weekend there were dances at both the Abbey and Sacred Heart College. There was also a swim party at the Gaston Wildlife Club, which unfortunately ended in a downpour.

The highlight of the Orientation Program was a pajama parade through Belmont. Originally, the plan had been to sweep the main street of Belmont, but once the red-beaned class reached the post office, it broke into a run and didn't stop until it reached Stowe Park.

At Stowe Park the freshmen heard the Mayor of Belmont welcome the class of '68 to Belmont. He expressed the hope that this would be a mutually profitable year for both the college and the town.

Officials of the College have agreed that this was a successfully conducted program. An orientation program is most important if freshmen are to be quickly and thoroughly integrated into the Abbey's traditions. They must be made aware of the purpose of the college, its goals and aims. Only through a successful Orientation program can this be effectively achieved.
